36th Annual Prairie Arts Festival

Fine Art & Fine Craft Exhibition and Sale

Presented by the Village of Schaumburg

Welcome from the Village President

Dear Patron of the Arts:

Welcome to the Village of Schaumburg's 36th annual Prairie Arts Festival.

We attract artists from all over to come to our lovely municipal center grounds so that you can find the perfect birthday gift, wedding or anniversary present, housewarming gift or just something for someone you love. You may even want to bring home something for yourself.

This is a juried festival so you may notice ribbons being displayed by a number of artists indicating that they have been awarded prizes.

Stroll the grounds. Enjoy the swans (Louis and Serena) and if the timing is right, their cygnets. Listen to some music, visit a food truck and enjoy the day. And don't forget to tell your friends about what you saw. And what you bought.

Sincerely,

Tom Dailly
Village President

36th Annual Prairie Arts Festival

Juror and Judges

Prairie Arts Festival Juror: Anita Ivy Miller

Anita Ivy Miller Professional Artist & Art Instructor Anita Miller Gallery & Studio in the Chicago Historic Fine Arts Building (tours available).

The Fine Arts Building, 410 S. Michigan Avenue, Suite 827, Chicago, IL 60605-1308, 312-888-6090 Anita, a two-dimensional artist, is currently developing "Escape Art," art for when you're feeling overwhelmed and need a refresh or break. Her acrylic paintings embody subject matter showing mysteries, little jokes, and declarative statements about life. They are found on the walls of galleries and private collections in Chicago and the Chicago metropolitan area. She teaches painting at The Art Center Highland Park.

Prairie Arts Festival Judge: Stephanie Adomaitis

Stephanie Lebak Adomaitis is a Chicago-area artist recognized for her dynamic large-scale acrylic paintings and immersive spray-painted installations. She earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts from Illinois State University and her Master of Fine Arts from the renowned Cranbrook Academy of Art. Her work has been exhibited at prominent venues including the Museum of Contemporary Art Detroit, Anna Russo-Sieber Gallery in Benton Harbor, Jan Brandt Gallery in Bloomington, Forum Gallery in Bloomfield Hills and the McLean County Arts Center. In addition to her studio practice, Adomaitis has contributed to arts education as a professor of drawing and painting at Illinois State University and as a drawing instructor at Heartland Community College. She has also held leadership roles in arts advocacy, serving on the board of the Prairie Center Arts Foundation and as President of the Friends of the Arts board at Illinois State University.

Prairie Arts Festival Judge: Don Yang

After serving seven years in the U.S. Army as a medic, Don pursued his childhood dream of living as an artist by studying at the American Academy of Art in Chicago where he earned a BFA with honors and later an MFA with emphasis on fine art and traditional illustration. After graduating from the Academy, Don has taught figure drawing, oil painting and artistic anatomy at the American Academy of Art for 22 years and served as chairperson of the Fine Arts Department and Foundations Department. An avid plein air painter, painting both outdoors and in his studio at the historic Fine Arts Building in downtown Chicago, he frequently exhibits his work both locally and nationally.

Prairie Plein Air Competition and Show Judge: Karen Sako

Karen Sako is a fine artist, graphic designer and instructor based in Arlington Heights, Illinois. With a BFA in Visual Communications from the Illinois Institute of Art and over 30 years of experience teaching drawing and oil painting, she brings a wealth of expertise to her artistic practice and students.

A dedicated plein air painter, Karen's work moves between abstraction and direct observation, exploring light, texture and the natural world with emotional depth. Her award-winning compositions have found homes in private and corporate collections worldwide, and she is an active member of The Suburban Sketchers of Long Grove, Arlington Heights Art Guild, Barrington Area Artists Association and the National Oil & Acrylic Painters Society.

Driven by optimism and curiosity, she invites viewers on a journey of artistic discovery — where creativity and passion collide. "As an artist deeply rooted in plein air, I understand the challenge and thrill of capturing a scene in the moment. I'll be looking for strong composition, dynamic use of light and a sense of place that goes beyond just representation. Show me your unique voice — how you see and interpret the world through paint."

Winner of five Tony Awards, The Drowsy Chaperone is a loving send-up of the Golden Age musical, featuring one show-stopping number after another!

As the houselights dim, a man in a chair appears on stage and plays his favorite record—a cast recording of a fictitious 1928 musical—which springs to life. Mix in two lovers on the eve of their wedding, a bumbling best man, a desperate producer, a not-so-bright hostess, two gangsters posing as pastry chefs, and an intoxicated chaperone, and you have the ingredients for an evening of madcap delight.

The Drowsy Chaperone is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are also supplied by MTI. www.mtishows.com

Businesses and organizations are invited to participate in Septemberfest by making donations to continue the success of Schaumburg's popular festival. It is anticipated that more than 100,000 people will attend the festival. Businesses that provide sponsorships receive excellent exposure and contribute substantially to the success of Schaumburg's premier event. Several sponsorship options are available with a variety of benefits for corporate and local small business sponsors.

Sponsorship opportunities can be found at septemberfest.org. For more information, review the Septemberfest Festival Info & Sponsorship Opportunities Guide, Sponsorship Flyer and Sponsorship Guidelines that provide a full look at the event, an attendee profile and a look at our on-site activation options, naming rights, on-site digital advertising, social media advertising, presenting sponsorships, on-site banners and more.
